

Gettysburg Remembrance Day

The Gettysburg Address – click to view full size and/or print

"The world will little note, nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here." You were mistaken, Mr. President. Every November we still remember, and honor, both what was said and what was done there.

[CHAPTER 800]

JOINT RESOLUTION

August 7, 1946
[P. J. Res. 32]
[Public Law 545]

Designating November 19, 1946, the anniversary of Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, as Dedication Day.

Gettysburg Address.

Whereas the Gettysburg Address of President Abraham Lincoln is the outstanding classic of the ages; and
Whereas it will touch the hearts of men and inspire them with faith in our matchless democracy as long as time endures; and
Whereas in that address Mr. Lincoln adjured his fellow countrymen to dedicate themselves to the principles of democracy in order that government "of the people, by the people, and for the people shall not perish from the earth": Therefore be it

Dedication Day.

Resolved by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That November 19, 1946, the anniversary of the Gettysburg Address, be, and hereby is, designated in our calendar of special days as Dedication Day.

That the President of the United States is requested to proclaim November 19, 1946, as Dedication Day and to suggest that the address be read on that day in public assemblages throughout the United States and its possessions, on our ships at sea and wherever the American flag flies.

Approved August 7, 1946.

An important piece of the National Cemetery is the Soldiers National Monument. The dedication ceremony was conducted on July 1, 1869 and featured the Oration of Hon. O. P. Morton, address of Major-General George G. Meade, and poem of Bayard Taylor
